NEW EDITOR I wish to introduce myself as Editor of your Club's Newsletter, beginning with this issue. My name is DONNA PETERS, Phone No. 261-7943. I started with CPS by attending the school in the Fall of 1982, and joined shortly thereafter. Through this job and other responsibilities I certainly hope to meet every Club member.

HOUSE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WANTED JOE EVANKO has resigned as House Committee Chairman, and as a member of the Board of Trustees. He hopes to devote more of his time to photography, and will continue his membership in CPS. Thank you, Joe, for your outstanding service. Also, a volunteer is much needed to handle janitorial work and general maintenance around the Club rooms. Please contact RUTH MORRISON for more information.

PHOTO JOURNALISM Please be reminded to prepare for the Photo Journalism competition for slides and prints to be held Friday, May 11th. Two entries are allowed in each category. To qualify, your photos must tell a story. For details, call TOM LITZLER at 251-3164.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBER The Board of Trustees in April approved membership for MIKE GOGA, from Cleveland. We promise to include in the next issue the names of new members not previously published.

BOB TROPEA'S FIELD TRIP Everyone met at Bob's Big Boy (Kamms Corner) and enjoyed a hearty breakfast early Sunday, April 15th. A good time was shared by the 27 attendees, who took to the Wild Flower Trail. Good weather and lots of blooming flowers made for a successful outing.

TRAVELETTE PHOTO ESSAY Are you preparing for this competition on May 25th? The governing rules are: (1) Maximum of 30 slides or prints, and (2) Five minutes maximum showing time. We must know by May 11th how many entries there will be. Please notify RUTH MORRISON or BOB BURNS.

ANSEL ADAMS 1902-1984 This master of photography died April 22nd, of natural causes. He was a composer of light and shadows, of which he felt he had more control with black/white prints. Most famous for his pictorials of Yosemite National Park.
