BULLETIN WINS HONORABLE MENTION

The Annual PSA Camera Club Bulletin competition winds up with CPS placing ninth in a field of sixty-four entries.

With a new chairman, Arthur P. Henricks, Jr., APSA in charge, and a lesser number of entries than in past years, four awards were given, first, second and two third places. Five Honor Awards (Blue Ribbons) were presented and another six Honorable Mentions (Green Ribbons) were given. Through The Darkroom Door was the first of the Honorable Mention awards.

It was also announced that next year another major change would be made by dividing the competition into two sections - one for clubs with over 50 members and the other for clubs with a membership of less than 50.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Frank Koteles who was a member of CPS for only a short time before being stricken by a fatal illness, passed away recently. He is survived by his wife, Vilma, who was also a member of the Society and a son, Robert. Our deepest sympathies are extended to them. While we didn't know Frank for very long, we regret not having known him much sooner.

C. P. S. that wuz

In the early years of CPS it was a member of Associated Camera Clubs of America (a forerunner of PSA) The annual print exchange was in the nature of a competition between the clubs. It was the boast of CPS that it entered 30 prints by 30 makers. Even at that time, it was felt that a club effort should be a showing of representative work by all members rather than merely the work of a talented few.

J. C. C. SIXTH ANNUAL PHOTOGRAPHY SHOW

The time is becoming short for preparing your entry for the Sixth Annual Photography competition to be held by the Jewish Community Center. Entries must be delivered on November 16, 17 or 18. The Judge is Clarence H. White, Acting Director of the Ohio University College of Fine Arts, Athens, Ohio. Prints will be exhibited from December 9 - 23 at the Center, 3505 Mayfield Road, across the street from Severance Center.

Euclid Beach Night was an unqualified success. Everyone who was in attendance received a souvenir program of pictures of the Beach while three lucky people received souvenir ashtrays. Attendance was 33. This program was a real test of seeing ability and showed that everyone sees the same subject in a different way. The many views of the entrance, the fountains and the pier were each handled differently. So in spite of a similarity of subject matter the evening was most stimulating.
